Dear Dr. Edna:

The great success of the 1991 Women's Conference was due in large part to your excellent leadership. Thank you for your talent and the many hours you put into the planning of the conference components. The positive response that the conference elicited has been overwhelming.

Women in Jacksonville have certainly benefited by having the tools they gained to achieve success that this forum provided. Thank you for your diligence and hard work. We look forward to working with you again to ensure quality of life improvement for all women.
